

THE VIGNATIS

What happens when you mix the passion for Rockabilly and Gypsy music with the love for Jazz and Country music? You get a whole new genre called Gypsybilly. THE VIGNATIS (Fabrice Vignati & Tracy Vignati) have been rockin' their Gypsybilly creation for seven albums with a new one to be released in summer 2025. The aurally and visually colorful Los Angeles-based group's dynamic creation charters audiences on a journey from nostalgic times to the unknown future. They innovatively fuse American/European traditions, musicianship, and a sense of humor cleverly expressed in their songs. "...The Vignatis deliver fabulous vocals on great tunes," says Music Connection Magazine. Their unmistakable, neo-nostalgic sound is a natural musical union so diverse it avoids strict categorization.

Their upcoming eighth album is an instrumental album entitled "Djangobilly: Gypsybilly Vol. 8" exhibiting their spin on some masterpieces by the late and great, unparalleled duo of Django Reinhardt and Stéphane Grappelli while adding five of their own compositions in the same style to complete this sonic party of ten tracks. The electric clarinet and use of the Gretsch guitar transform the traditional sounds into something revolutionary modernizing the expected in a very unexpected manner.

As prestigious voting members of The Recording Academy and Grammy® Awards, THE VIGNATIS have performed at many esteemed events and venues including The Grammy Museum, Emmy Awards Parties, and as the opening support act for renowned bands as well as various stages in France and Japan. They recently completed their premier tour in Japan, will be returning in fall 2025, some spring 2025 shows in Austin, TX and are working on adding the UK and Scandinavia to the list. Music is their lifestyle. Their goal is to share Gypsybilly with the world by passing on to others the same joy they receive in creating it. Whether paying homage to their great musical influences or exploring the future, THE VIGNATIS continue to blend the old continent, Europe with the new continent, America from studio to stage.
