(English Translation)

Fabrice (Vocal, Guitar) and Tracy (Vocal, Clarinet, Piano) Vignati are a Franco-American couple living in Los Angeles who called their new genre of music Gypsybilly. which is a fusion of Rockabilly, Country and Swing with a touch of gypsy jazz and most of the time humorous lyrics.

Musically, it's well craft and upbeat, with beautiful guitar performances. I'm not a fan of the singing. In comparasion from the previous albums, The Vignatis added electro beats on some songs. They called it Electrobilly, new genre of music i won't be a customer.
